

For Immediate Release December 1, 1994

Exhibition Gavin Brown - "Collections"

Dates December 14, 1994 through January 28, 1995

Opening on Wednesday, December 14 the gallery will present an exhibition of work by British-born artist Gavin Brown. This will be the artist's first one-person exhibition in the United States.

The show will consist of three distinct collections: 1. paperback books; 2. offset posters; 3. varying images and objects whose only common denominator is the artist. The sources and authorship of the collections are eclectic to the extreme. The work pivots on the wildly diverse nature of its origins producing a fluidity and democracy that veils the fact that it is truly sentimental.

Exhibition Kevin Landers - "New York" - Color Photographs and Objects

Dates December 14, 1994 through January 28, 1995

Opening on Wednesday, December 14 the gallery will present an exhibition of recent photographs and objects by New York-based artist Kevin Landers. This will be the artist's first one-person exhibition in the United States.

In his work, Kevin Landers embraces life in New York. His idiosyncratic vision touches the people, the places, as well as peculiarities of life in the Big Apple with a specific empathy for the microcosm of the Lower East Side. In his photographs and his objects, Landers succeeds in combining the highly familiar with the unusual. His exploration of urban phenomena helps transform our own perception and experience of the urban reality around us, making us take a second look. He also achieves a very unusual feat-- through his eyes the city becomes more beautiful in a very unsuspecting way.
